

Pale straw in color, the wine offers a delicate fragrance of wild flowers and golden delicious apples. It is dry, soft and fruit forward, with a lively taste that offers notes of peach and almonds.

FONTANA CANDIDA FRASCATI DOC

Frascati, at the center of the Roman agricultural area of Tuscolano, has always been renowned for its wine, which is often cited in Italian literature. Frascati DOC is the principal wine of Fontana Candida. This ancient wine, born in the Roman hills, has deservedly been called “the wine of popes and of the people.” It is said that during a couple of papal elections, Frascati spouted from some Roman fountains to the delight and amusement of the people. Citizens rushed out with bottles and cups to capture the wine and enjoy it fully.

SOIL

Volcanic, potassium rich soil.

PRODUCTION TECHNIQUE

The grapes, harvested between September and October, are immediately taken to the cellars, vinified in temperature-controlled stainless steel and gently pressed. The wine is fermented and aged in stainless steel and then bottled under nitrogen to protect its freshness and lush fruit flavors.

BOUQUET

Delicate fragrance of wild flowers and golden delicious apples.

TASTE

Dry, soft and fruit forward, with a lively taste that offers notes of peach and almonds.

FOOD PAIRING

Fontana Candida Frascati is ideal as an aperitif or with salads, pasta, veal, chicken and seafood.
