

NATURA

SYRAH

Valle de Rapel CHILE 2011

Made with organically grown grapes. Sustainably farmed. | Harnessing the pure energy of nature for exceptional wines.

EMILIANA

ORGANIC VINEYARDS

NATURA Syrah 2011 Emiliana Chile

Area of Production:

Rapel Valley, Chile.

Soil:

Alluvial mixture of clay and sand.

Grape Variety:

100% Syrah. 100% organically grown grapes.

Production Technique:

The organically grown grapes are hand-picked in mid-April. After the crush, the must is transferred to temperature-controlled stainless steel fermentation tanks to cold soak before undergoing alcoholic fermentation. The wine then undergoes malolactic fermentation naturally. 20% of this wine is aged in French oak barrels for 6 months.

Characteristics:

Color: Deep ruby red in color.

Bouquet: Notes of rich mocha and ripe red fruit.

Taste: Soft, voluptuous tannins framed by red fruit and a touch of pepper spice, with good length and balance.

Alcohol Content: 13.9%.

Total Acidity: 3.39 g/l.

This wine pairs well with grilled or roasted meats, game such as duck, pâtés and sautéed vegetables.